

Arbitrary Night

Lyrics by Natti Vogel

Sung to the tune of "O Holy Night"

Arbitrary night, it will be what we make it!
Like every night, we refuse to be blind.
Long lies the world in ignorance and vagueness
But we are clear on the worth of the mind.

A glorious chorus from centuries before us
of scientists and scholars comes forward to implore us:
"Stand on your feet; you need to bow to no one.
On this arbitrary night, let your mind
Shine its light.
On this arbitrary night, let your mind
Shine its light."
